

Nasser Al Issa

Nasser Al Issa joined Rothschild & Co in 2023 and currently leads the firm's initiatives in Debt Advisory, Equity Capital Markets, and Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A). He brings over 20 years of experience, with a focus primarily on M&A, Corporate Finance, Debt & Equity Advisory, Restructuring, Asset & Portfolio Management, and Corporate Banking.

Prior to Rothschild & Co, Nasser was the Chief Investment Officer of SALIC, a PIF entity focused on food and agriculture investments, Head of Corporate Finance at Arasco, a national food security business focused on grains, feed, logistics & animal protein, and was a Senior Banker for many years of his career working at Samba Financial Group and the National Commercial Bank (now Saudi National Bank).

In terms of academic credentials, Nasser holds an Economics & Finance Degree from Purdue University, an MBA from Oxford University, and completed the Executive Management Program from INSEAD. His educational background, combined with his vast professional experience, makes him a knowledgeable and effective leader in the financial sector.