

Nasser Al Issa

Nasser Al Issa joined Rothschild & Co in 2023 and currently leads the firm's initiatives in Debt Advisory, Capital Markets, and Mergers & Acquisitions (M&A). He brings over 18 years of experience, with a focus primarily on M&A, Corporate Finance, Debt Advisory, Restructuring, Asset Management, and Corporate Banking.

Prior to his current role, Nasser served as the Head of Treasury & Corporate Finance at Arabian Agricultural Services Company (ARASCO) and as Chief Investment Officer at Saudi Agricultural and Livestock Investment Company (SALIC). These roles have equipped him with extensive expertise in financial operations and strategic investment management.

In terms of academic credentials, Nasser holds an Economics Degree from Purdue University, Indiana, and an MBA from Oxford University. His educational background, combined with his vast professional experience, makes him a knowledgeable and effective leader in the financial sector.